Tartar Teen Talk

By BARBARA BALOW FR 5-7807

Monday, April 28, the Tartar Ladies put on their annual assembly. The title of the assembly was "This Is Your Life, Mrs. Lep's, Girls' Advisor." The ladies acted out scenes from her past. It was a very funny program.

May 1 was the date of the tryouts for the pep squad. Majorettes and flag twirlers are judged on ability by professional judges. The yell leaders and song queens try out in front of the student body at a rally on that date. They are voted on by the entire A.S.B.

Congratulations go to Donna McHenry, who won the first prize in the Posture Week contest sponsored by the Girls' League. Girls have to maintain good posture throughout the whole week. The contestants are judged by their teachers. Second place winner was Arline Whitman, and third place winner was Rita Winfield.

Girls: it's still not too late to ask a boy to the Backwards Dance. This year's Backwards Dance, sponsored by the Girls' and Boys' League, is titled "Cotton Ball." It is to be held at the high school cafeteria tomorrow (Friday), May 7, 7:30 p.m. A king and queen will be crowned according to the most appropriate outfits. It is one of the biggest events at THS, so be sure to attend.

May 6 is the date of this semester's Slack and Pedal Pusher Day. Boys will be allowed to wear Bermuda provided they wear Bermuda socks with them. Be sure to buy your tickets, boys and girls—only one dime.

The original one-acts were a success again. Friday, Torrance held the one acts festival and they went over very well. Thursday the students were shown a teaser of what was in store. Rosemary DeCamp awarded her trophies to the authors.

Fox Markets Buy Iowa Pork Shops

Acquisition of the majority of stock of the Iowa Pork Shops, Inc., by Fox Markets, Inc., has been announced in a joint statement by J. S. Finlay, president of Iowa Pork Shops, Inc., and E. J. Fox, resident of Fox Markets, Inc.

Iowa Pork Shops, numbering 11, are located primarily in the Long Beach and Compton areas. Another market is currently under construction in the Lakewood community. Volume of business is approximately $22,000,000 annually.

Fox Markets, together with the 11 added by this acquisition, now operate 40 markets in the Southern California area. Outside of the Los Angeles region, Fox operated units located in San Gabriel, Compton, Long Beach, Ventura, Mojave Desert, Antelope Valley, and Covina.

Under construction, currently, are three Fox Markets in Compton and the San Fernando Valley.

Anticipated total volume of the combined operations, including the four new being built, is estimated to exceed $100,000,000 annually.

The Iowa Pork Shops will continue to do business under the same name as a division of Fox Markets.

No changes in operating personnel will be made.

Honor Slated For Float's Decorators

Some 180 Torrance residences who were responsible for the prize-winning Pasadena Tournament of Roses float, "Rocket to the Moon," will be honored at an "Appreciation Night" on Friday at 7 p.m. at the Torrance YWCA.

Chairman George Bradford of the sponsoring Torrance Chamber of Commerce said the official Tournament of Roses Film, in color and sound, will be shown and that a number of photos taken during construction and decoration stages will be on display.

The decorations chairman, Mrs. Victor E. Benstead Jr., will receive a plaque from the Chamber for her leadership.

Torrance's entry received a third place award although only six weeks notice was given by tournament officials.

Veteran float decorator, Mrs. Isabell Coleman, said that the decorating job on Torrance's entry was one of the finest ever in the over 50-year history of the classic.

Light refreshments will be served, Bradford added.

Montgomery Students to Give Musical

A modification of the arena staging technique will be featured in Bishop Montgomery High School's spring production, "Shreds and Patches," a Gilbert and Sullivan musical comedy, to be presented May 23, 24, and 25.

The show, to be given in the school library, will be handled completely with an open stage and a permanent set.

Over 110 of Montgomery's freshmen will appear in the play, in dramatic roles, chorus or dance routines. Sharon Purdy, Manhattan Beach, will play the part of Jenny, and Harvey Fairholt, Torrance, will be Oliver. Other students are engaged in ticket selling, and art work with the scenery.

Proceeds for the show, which will feature a Gay Nineties plot and mood, will go toward finishing the Montgomery Knights' football team for next year. Fathers from the Parent-Faculty Organization are selling patronships for the show. Mrs. Gordon McRae is handling the costuming.

The show is directed by Sister Rita Francis, C. S. J., and Father Anselm Romb, members of the Montgomery faculty.
